Michigan has a great history—a greater destiny. For her past like her future is linked irrevocably with that of God's Church. Her forests sheltered the valiant pioneer missionaries; her rosary of blue lakes lured them to every pine-topped shore, every patterned sand dune.

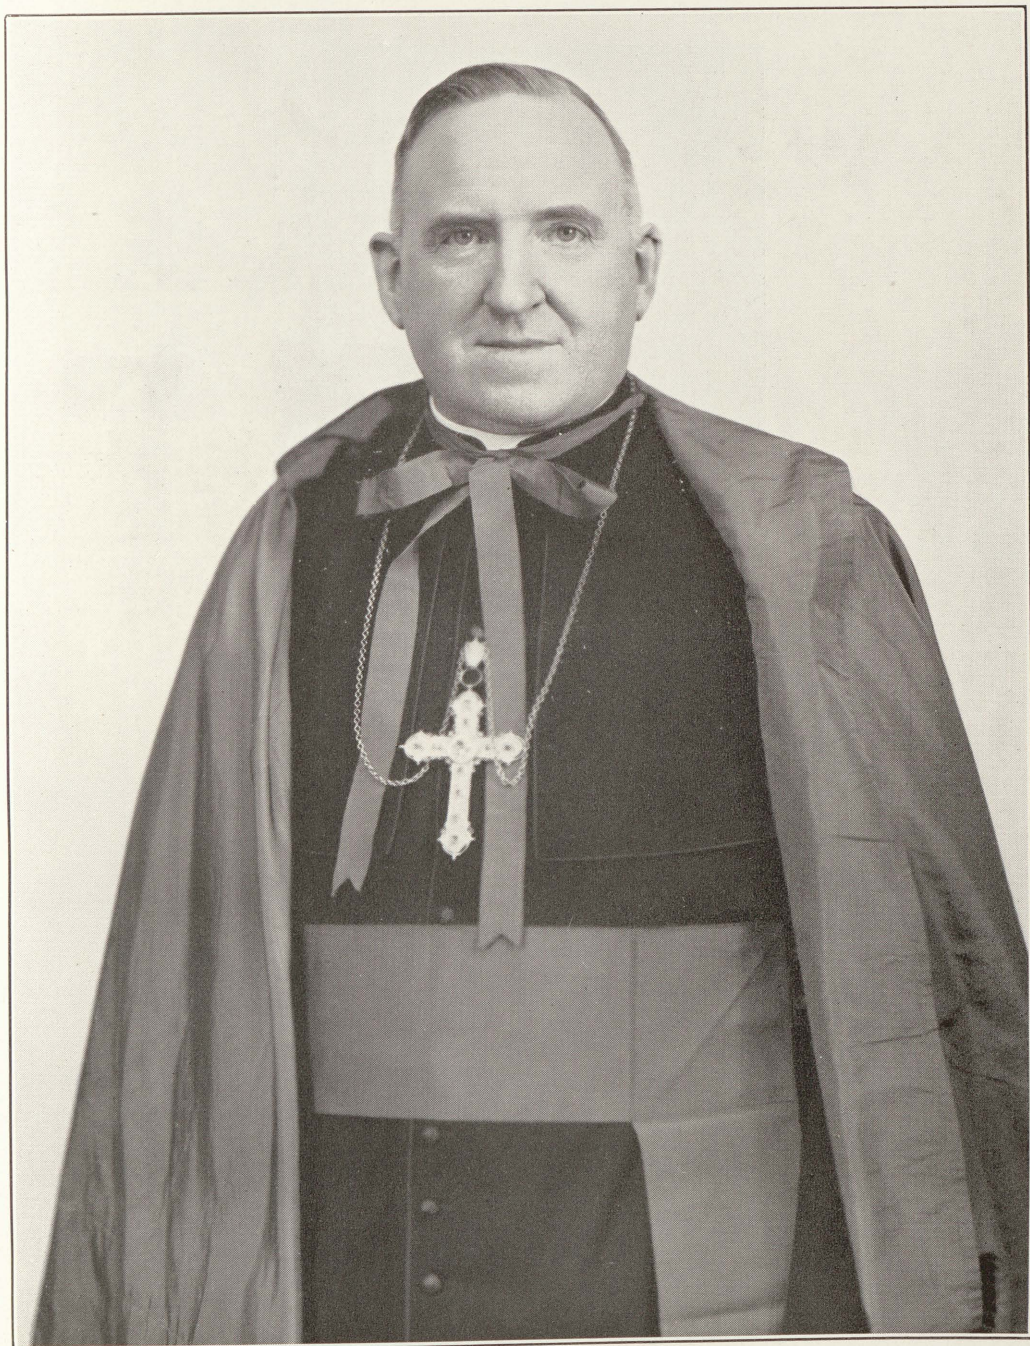

And today from some high hill in Paradise, kind eyes look down upon the diocese of Saginaw. They see in the four-fold flame upon her shield a fulfillment of the divine wisdom that inspired the name of Saginaw.

For was it not one day to be a great name in the Church of Peter the Flame?

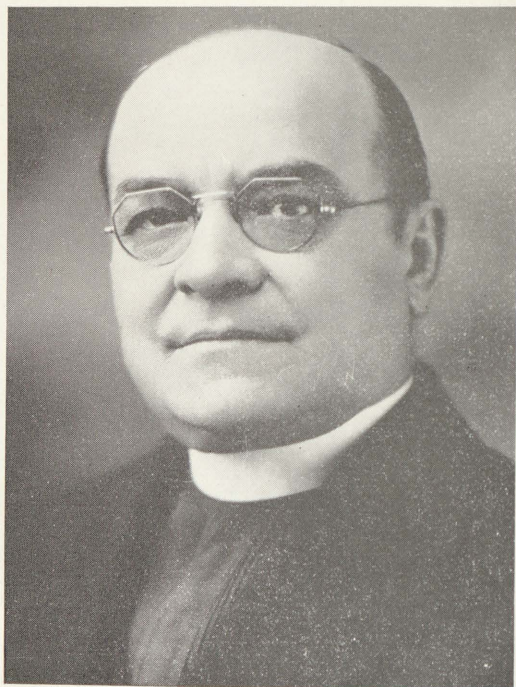

Dedication

This Commencement number of the Amplifier, published by the Class of 1938, is offered to His Excellency, the Most Reverend William F. Murphy, D.D., Bishop of Saginaw, as a pledge of fealty, a testimony of unswerving devotion. Agenda Adimplere.

His Excellency, the Most Reverend William F. Murphy, D. D.,
Bishop of Saginaw

My Dear Graduates of 1938:

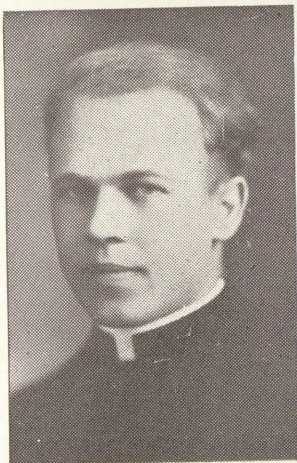

Sincere and hearty congratulations to you on the occasion of your graduation from St. Andrew's High School. You have received an excellent training of heart and mind due to two factors — capable teachers and your faithful co-operation.

You have two distinctions: the one is that you are the first class to receive your diploma from the hand of your first Bishop, His Excellency Most Reverend William Francis Murphy, D. D., L. L. D.; and the second is that you are the largest class that has ever graduated from any Catholic school in Saginaw.

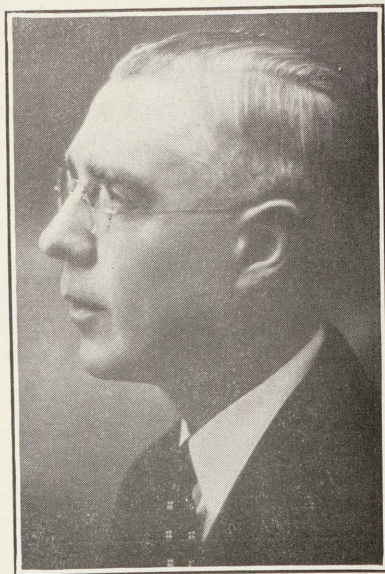

So now go forth from your Alma Mater bearing with you the best wishes for your success and the hope that with courage and strength you will accomplish great things "For Our Faith, For Our Flag, For Christ Our King."

Your Pastor,

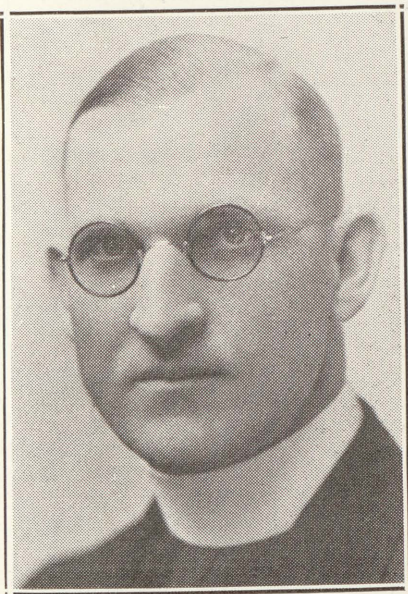

Rev. Timothy Kroboth.

Foreword

We, the Class of 1938, march into the future bearing the emblazoned shield of the newly created diocese of Saginaw. We follow a Leader to whom all have sworn fidelity under the motto "For our Flag, for our Faith, for Christ the King."

Through those happy and spirited years at St. Andrew's, we have conceived a fiery love which keeps burning in our hearts for our country and its institutions. We have pledged ourselves to the cause of Democracy and to the flag of the United States.

And close to the blazing banner of America, shines the yellow and white, symbolic of our fidelity to the person of Christ's vicar on Earth, Pope Pius XI.

And so, we go bravely into the future, down the shining pathway of the years, bearing in our hearts fidelity to our Flag and to our Faith. Like fifty-one brave knights we follow close to our Leader, Christ the King.

Class President.

Salutatory

As scudding clouds sweep across the great pines of our Michigan forests, we, an eager body of graduates, leave St. Andrew's to begin our journey down the uncharted pathway of our lives. For some the way will be toilsome, obstructed by barriers. Flowery vines of vice will tempt all of us to dangerous by-paths.

But our hearts are filled with trust in God, and our inspiration in times of darkness is the glorious shield of the new Diocese of Saginaw. May it guide us safely through the years, until we find at journey's end peace — and the Heart of Christ.

— Rose Mary Sova.

Class History

1934 - 1935

As we open the memory book of our high school days, we find on the fly leaf the names of our class officers during our freshman year, Frances Sperry, President; Bernice Devereaux, Vice-President; Betty Nentwig, Secretary; and James Phalen, Treasurer. Such events as the freshman initiation party and the Christmas party are listed on the social calendar for that year. We find freshman members of the Glee Club taking part in "Why the Chimes Rang" and "To Whom Christ Came." Then the mid-year and June banquets at which we wistfully gazed and wondered if the day would ever come when we could take active part in such events. At year's end congratulating the class of 1935 on their success in the production of "Berkley Square," we bade them farewell.

1935 - 1936

Opening the second section of our memory book, we come upon our sophomore year with William McGraw leading us as class president; William Meran, vice-president; Bernice Devereaux, secretary; and Robert Bordeaux, treasurer. The Latin class gives a portrayal of the ancient story, "A Sculptor's Prayer." The members of the verse choir present a program for the city council of the Parent Teacher Association. We welcome the Rev. Kyran McGinn to St. Andrew's. The sophomore girls take the first step toward active part in the banquets by serving our upper classmen at the February and June banquets. Watching the class of 1936 carry out their final victory, "The Vagabond King," we are ready to begin the third chapter.

1936 - 1937

We find Joseph Sabourin as president; William Meran, vice-president; Mary Jean Laracy, secretary; and Philip Couillard, treasurer. The Juniors score a great success in the "Mid-winter Magnet," with Bernice Devereaux as general chairman. They are entertained by the Seniors in the lovely winter setting of the February banquet. Junior members of the Amplifier staff attend the Journalism convention at Detroit. Members of the class are selected to the National Honor Society and to the Quill and Scroll. After much planning the Junior class sponsors the Junior - Senior banquet as a farewell gesture to the class of 1937.

1937 - 1938

We have reached the last chapter; the book will soon be finished. In the final year we are led by Philip Couillard, president; William Meran, vice-president; Genevieve La Joie, secretary; and Clayton Dey, treasurer. The Rev. John Bozak is heartily welcomed into the faculty. The football team embarks upon a splendid year. For the last time we are called together for a retreat climaxed by the reception of the freshmen into the Sodality. At this ceremony the high school girls wear white veils for the first time. The Seniors have the Juniors as their guests at the mid-year banquet. During the year the Saginaw Student Sodality is formed, with Father Bozak as Spiritual Director. The Senior class play, "Adam and Eva," is a shining reward of hard work. In quick succession come the Spring Review — the banquet — Baccalaureate.

Now we are finishing the book; we gaze in fascination, reluctant to take our eyes from the glorious climax. Grey clad figures pass in line, their diplomas clasped tightly in their hands.

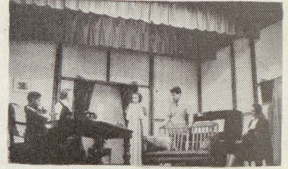

We pause before we let the cover of our memory book fall, hearing again the motto which will be an inspiration through all our years — for our Flag, for our Faith, for Christ the King.

A collage of black and white photographs of students, likely from a mid-20th-century yearbook. The photos are arranged in a non-linear fashion. There are several individual portraits of students, some in formal attire and others in more casual clothing. Group photos show students standing together outdoors, some in uniform. Action photos depict students playing sports, such as basketball, football, and track. The overall tone is nostalgic and celebratory.

School Begins

September 14 —

Today is a grand day. The new seniors are back, looking very superior; the juniors are acting a little serious, and the sophomores are being trampled on. And everybody, with a coat of tan and all, greets everybody else gleefully. School is grand.

September 26 —

The Student Council president has awakened our sense of values by introducing the Student Activity Ticket. Now we're all frantic trying to figure out how to scrape up the needed cash, but the installment plan has come to the rescue.

What a start for the football season! St. Andrew defeated St. James, 20-0.

October 20 —

Visual Education offered "The Hoosier Schoolmaster," which was enjoyed by the students.

October 21 —

The Freshman Initiation party — and so crowded, so full, that everyone was dancing on everyone else's shoes which nobody minded in the least; since nobody noticed, for everybody was too busy having a good time, and everybody was there — simply EVERYBODY!

October 31 —

Oh, if this only keeps up. We played St. Mary and won, 13-0.

November 4 —

A most distinguished visitor displayed her talents for speed typing, Miss Grace Phelan.

November 7 —

More laurels! We had a thrilling game with St. Phillip, Detroit, and our boys surely fought hard, and they had to, too, because St. Phillip's has a mighty fine team, but WE WON! 19-13!

November 12 —

Our music enthusiastic heard the Detroit symphony orchestra. But Hold Everything: The point is, we play St. Peter and Paul Sunday!

November 14 —

Ah me, I feel so low, I can hardly write. We lost a perfectly good game with St. Peter and Paul. But then, we must grin and bear the 8-0 score.

November 25 —

Today is Thanksgiving, with turkey and cranberries 'n' everything!

December 8 —

Early Mass was beautiful today with the girls in their new white veils. Today the freshmen are being received into the Sodality. Immaculate Conception.

December 14 —

Well, we're progressing — we started Basketball and what a start. We won the first one with Sacred Heart, Mt. Pleasant, 23-20.

December 21 —

Today we had an assembly which was very clever — a Christmas play was presented by the Student Council and Sodality.

December 22 —

Ah! The event of events! Helen Gilles was crowned Holly Queen by old Santa Claus himself at the high school Christmas party.

January 4 —

School reopens and worry begins over the coming semester exams.

January 5 —

Oh, this is TOO depressing. Mt. Michael's, Flint, defeated St. Andrew's in a basketball game, 40-18.

January 7 —

Good news, this time. We feel partly compensated, for we beat St. Joseph's, Bay City, 27-7.

January 9 —

Saginaw parochial high schools have organized a Sodality Union.

January 14 —

Anyway, we beat St. Peter and Paul in a basketball game, 21-20.

January 21 —

I knew it was too good to last. St. Mary's defeated us, 26-19.

January 24 —

Ouch! Semester exams have begun.

January 25 —

Feel better now. We beat Sacred Heart, Merrill, 30-17.

January 28 —

Guess I can't take it anymore. Tonight St. Mary's, Bay City won, 24-19 and on

January 30 —

St. Michael's won, 25-17.

January 31 —

Tonight was the Senior-Junior banquet with all its glory and fun and beautiful decorations, with a fat snow-man in a setting of snow-laden trees.

February 4 —

Dear, dear, what can the matter be! ! ! St. Matthew's beat us in basketball, 26-25.

February 9 —

There must be a jinx on us because SS. Peter and Paul's team was victorious, 26-19.

February 11 —

Well! The clouds are drifting. We beat Sacred Heart, Merrill, 26-16.

February 13 —

The Saginaw Student Sodality met at St. Andrew's today.

February 15 —

Food! Speeches! The Saginaw P. T. A.

Banquet was held in the school auditorium.

February 16 —

Today, to show our patriotism, a play was presented on the lives of George Washington and Abraham Lincoln.

February 20 —

Orchids to Bernice Devereaux who is valedictorian, and Rosemary Sova, who is Salutatorian.

February 23 —

I say, we're coming right along now. We defeated Sacred Heart, Mt. Pleasant, 30-19.

March 2 —

Ash Wednesday begins the Lenten Season.

March 12 —

Great Day! Now we have our own diocese with Monsignor Murphy of Detroit selected for bishop.

March 14 —

Ann Sills and Harold Ripslinger were selected as co-editors of the 1938 year book.

March 17 —

Green bows, green belts, green ties, it's St. Patrick's Day. The Juniors presented a play, "The Mouse Trap."

March 18 —

Assembly was quite exciting today. City Manager Cookingham gave us an insight into the city government.

April 4 —

Yes, he was a great man; we saw the "Life of Washington" movie today.

April 15 - 19 —

Easter Recess — not an occasion for regret.

April 29 —

We had a visitor from SS. Peter and Paul today. Bernard Regan spoke on "If Christ Were Here Today."

May 1 —

A beautiful sight, a beautiful experience — First Communion Sunday. Senior Play, "Adam and Eva" — a keen success.

May 6 —

Baseball Season began with a bang. We trimmed St. Matthew's, Flint, 10-1.

May 8 —

Holy Name Breakfast.

May 10 —

My ball game. It was the seminary's loss this time, 3-2.

May 13 —

Well, it's all over now — the election by a city voting machine resulted in Dick Watz for president and all the rest of the "best men" won.

May 17 —

Consecration of Monsignor Murphy.

May 28 —

Local "talent" makes good in the Spring Revue, which was pretty grand all way around.

June 1 —

Installation of the Most Rev. Bishop Murphy, first Bishop of Saginaw.

June 5 —

Strength, Goodness — the fruits of Confirmation.

June 7 —

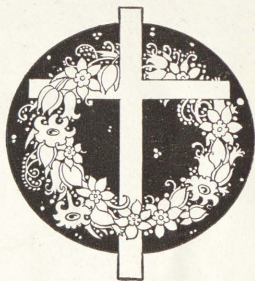

We've waited so long, but here it is — the Junior-Senior Banquet — bigger, better, and peppier than ever.

June 12 —

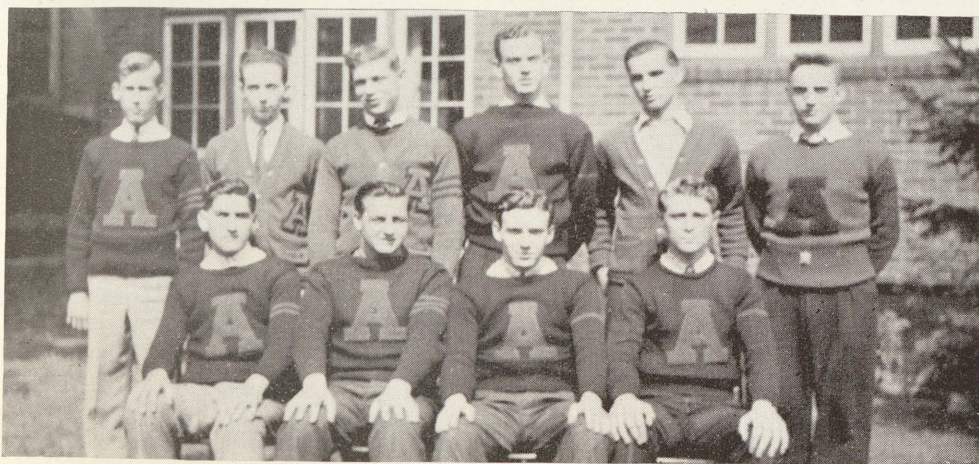

Baccalaureate Sunday — all those deserving wearing robes and looking very solemn and reverent.

June 14 —

Commencement night and it's all so grand with all mothers and fathers and uncles and aunts and cousins and — Heavens! I don't know why, but I'm cr-cr-crying — boo hoo - hoo! Adois! Au Revoir! Auf wiedersehen! So, Goodbye! !!

Class Poem

"For our Flag, for our Faith, for Christ the King." — Rev. Daniel O. Lord, S. J.

We stand prepared
With youth's bright spirit
And with the fiery blood of patriots
Coursing our veins.

Arms outstretched, we grasp the torch of battle
Lighted long ago,
To defend our flag.

We kneel together,
Receive our arms of Charity and Hope.
Thanking our heavenly Father for His love,
We draw courage from united prayer
To live the faith.

And then we rise,
Strengthened to follow
Over the highways of Eternity,
Onward! Ever onward!
Beneath the banners of emblazoned gold,
Our king, the Christ divine!

— Frances Sperry.

Senior Monitors

First Row — Catherine Sperry, Heien Gilles, Bernice Devereaux, Rose Mary Sova, Frances Sperry, Leone Peters.

Third Row — Howard Schulz, Harold Ripslinger, Robert Bordeaux, Joseph Sabourin, William Meran, Phillip Couillard, Clayton Dey.

Sodality Officers

First Row — Patricia Pettet, Mary Jean Laracey, Catherine Sperry, Rose Mary Sova.

Second Row — Howard Schulz, Elizabeth Nentwig, Bernice Devereaux, Frances Sperry, Clayton Dey.

Third Row — Harold Brin, William McGraw, Robert Bordeaux, John Griffore.

Hall of Fame

Before the portals of a stately tower are grouped the graduates of 1938, grave in the dignity of caps and gowns. The class roll is called for the last time. Then the massive doors slowly open, and they enter the St. Andrew Hall of Fame. The throbbing tones of an organ sound through the great arches before them. Pillars rise in the gloom. The glory of a setting sun flames through the stained glass windows.

First Window — Class Officers

The golden gleam of the class colors streams through the historic window bearing the names of those capable leaders who so ably guided the Seniors to victory in their final year. Inscribed in yellow and white we find: President, Philip Couillard; Vice-president, William Meran; Secretary, Genevieve La Joie; Treasurer, Clayton Dey.

Second Window — Student Council

Emblazoned in the crimson and white of the Mercy seal are the names of the Student Council: President, Thomas O'Reilly; Vice-president, Joseph Sabourin; Representatives, Harold Brin, Philip Couillard, William McGraw, Betty Nentwig, Harold Ripslinger, Frances Sperry, and Mary Jean Laracey.

Third Window — National Honor Society

The blue and gold of the National Honor Society emblem flood the window with the names of those who have won recognition for Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service. Senior members of the Rev. Timothy Kroboth Chapter are: Betty Allore, William Meran, Betty Nentwig, Patricia Pettet, Joseph Sabourin, Howard Schulz, Rose Mary Sova, Catherine Sperry, and Frances Sperry.

Fourth Window — Scholastic Honors

The silver radiance of achievement marks the fourth window with the names of the students who have won high scholastic honors: Bernice Devereaux, valedictorian; Rose Mary Sova, salutatorian; Frances Sperry, Betty Nentwig, Howard Schulz, and Patricia Pettet.

Fifth Window — Amplifier

Sunlight through the multi-colored ninth window sends a shimmering light as the names of the Amplifier staff appear: Co-editors, Betty Nentwig, Frances Sperry; Members, Betty Allore, Harold Brin, Bernice Devereaux, Genevieve La Joie, Lorraine Lovay, William McGraw, Pearl Mannion, Patricia Pettet, Leone Peters, Thomas O'Reilly, Mary Elizabeth Schwager, Ann Sills, Rose Mary Sova, Catherine Sperry, and Joanna Sweeney.

Sixth Window — Music

Stars break through the misty grey of the window honoring the names of those who by earnest endeavor have merited recognition in the field of music. Graduate of St. Andrew School of Music, Howard Schulz; Glee Club members: James Alexander, Bernice Devereaux, Mary Elizabeth Schwager, Rose Mary Sova, and Frances Ann Straebel.

Seventh Window — Sports

Under the blue and white banner of St. Andrew's the Seniors meet on the field of sports to uphold the name of the school in victory or defeat: James Alexander, Robert Bordeaux, Harold Brin, Philip Couillard, Clayton Dey, Leo Erber, John Gerst, John Griffore, William Meran, Stanley Prebo, Joseph Sabourin, Ernest Rummler, and Harold Ripslinger.

Eighth Window — Sodality

The fifth window is dedicated to the faithful officers in the blue glory of the Sodality of Our Lady. Co-prefects, Mary Jean Laracey, William McGraw; Senior committee chairmen: Betty Allore, Robert Bordeaux, Harold Brin, Bernice Devereaux, Betty Nentwig, Patricia Pettet, Rose Mary Sova, Catherine Sperry, John Griffore, Clayton Day, and Howard Schulz.

Ninth Window — Quill and Scroll

Honoring those who have achieved journalistic merit, the ninth window bears the names of the members of the Quill and Scroll Society; James Alexander, Bernice Devereaux, Helen Gilles, William McGraw, Betty Nentwig, Thomas O'Reilly, Ernest Rummler, Ann Sills, Catherine Sperry, Frances Sperry, and Rose Mary Sova.

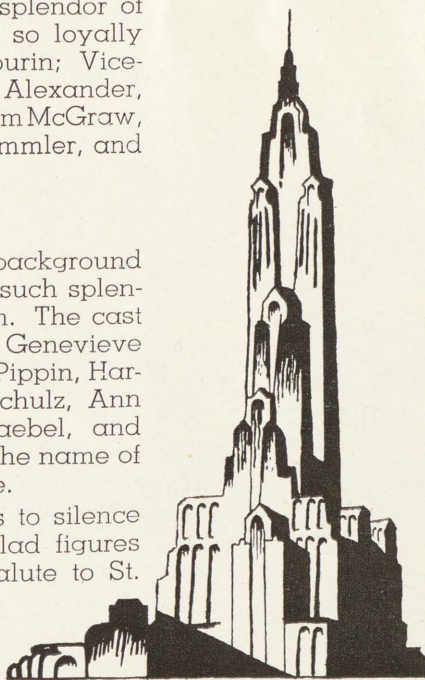

Tenth Window — Acolytes

The Cathedral altar reflects the white splendor of those faithful servants of Christ who have so loyally fulfilled their task: President, Joseph Sabourin; Vice-president, Philip Couillard; Members, James Alexander, John Gerst, John Griffore, Clayton Dey, William McGraw, Stanley Prebo, Harold Ripslinger, Ernest Rummler, and Howard Schulz.

Eleventh Window — Drama

The purple glory of the drama forms a background for the actors in "Adam and Eva," who did such splendid work in carrying out the school tradition. The cast included James Brown, Bernice Devereaux, Genevieve La Joie, Leone Peters, Patricia Pettet, Donald Pippin, Harold Ripslinger, Ernest Rummler, Howard Schulz, Ann Sills, Catherine Sperry, Frances Ann Straebel, and Joanna Sweeney. Engraved with them was the name of Robert Brennan, director of the Spring Revue.

The shadows deepen. The music fades to silence in the long aisles. Once again the grey-clad figures gather outside the Hall of Fame. A last salute to St. Andrew's, to their leader, Christ the King! And then slowly, one by one, they depart. The class of 1938 will never meet again.

Patricia Pettet.

Elizabeth Nentwig.

Valedictory

The memory-filled book of high school days is closing. One by one, the pages have been turned, until now we are completing our task and are ready to open the new volume before us.

Catholic Action has been our inspiration all through high school days and now armed with the helmet of faith, the spurs of hope and the shield of charity, we are ready to venture out into the world.

Classmates, there lie before us many opportunities to further the work of Christ in our beloved Michigan. May we find inspiration in the flaming shield of our new diocese to light us on to higher, nobler deeds for Christ, Our King.

Bernice Devereaux.
